

PRIVACY POLICY

Contact Marketing LLC is highly sensitive to the privacy interests of its customers and believes that the protection of those interests is one of its most significant responsibilities. In acknowledgement of its obligations, Contact Marketing LLC adopted the following privacy policy applicable to information about customers that is acquired in the course of its business.

1. Acquisition of Information. We do not acquire any more information about our customers than is required by law or otherwise necessary to provide a high level of service efficiently and securely.
2. Our Employees. We train all of our employees about the importance of privacy. We give access to information about our customers only to those employees who require it to perform their jobs.
3. Security Measures. We make access to privately-sensitive information subject to rigorous procedural and technological controls.
4. Disclosure to Third Parties. We will provide information about our customers to third parties only if we are compelled to do so by order of a duly-empowered governmental authority, by expressed permission of the customer, or if it is necessary to process transactions and provide our services.
5. Question. If you have a question about this privacy policy, please send an email to info@ptileads.com
